

Excerpts of Thank You notes from our 2013 WMF Scholars...

I write you this with tears of joy in my eyes! I am unable even to begin to speak! My heart is overwhelmed with unspeakable delight and gratitude to WMF! All I can say is thank you so much Wells Mountain Family! — Robert Kituyi, Kenya, Journalism

I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to WMF family for creating the platform for us to continue our tertiary education. I would pledge to work tirelessly to go through the course successfully so that the world will benefit from any skill I acquire throughout the training. — Foster Edufia, Ghana, Medicine

I am highly grateful for your support to build my career and work for the society in future. Now your support has increased my ambitions to work for the society and world. Best regards from me and my father and mother who are really happy today and are proud of me now even more. — Shrish Saeed, Pakistan, Medicine

It has always been my dream to pursue higher education although I had no financial means due to the high cost of university education in Kenya. Honestly WMF scholarship couldn't have come at a better time than this when my hopes of ever setting foot in the corridors of university were diminishing. Therefore, I take this opportunity to most sincerely thank you for selecting me to be one of the WMF Scholars given this golden privilege. — Peter Mwangi, Kenya, Education & Special Needs Education

My heart was jumping with joy when I visited the WMF website. I am still praising God and thanking him for WMF and this wonderful opportunity. I will definitely continue working hard and making my family (WMF) proud. — Maulline Akumu, Kenya, Law

I am just overwhelmed with joy and gratitude to you and to God for this achievement. I have just shared the news with my elder brother who supports me through my education at KIU WC and everything is just joy! As for the expectation WMF may have over me as one of their new scholars, I will not want to say much, but rather act more as I continue with my studies. — Leju B.M. Jansuk, South Sudan, Medicine

Thank you so much. May God bless you abundantly and believe it that through your effort, a son of a peasant would be empowered. Thanks once again. — Elijah Aburi Nyanti, Kenya, Law

I am very happy that I got scholarship from the Wells Mountain Foundation. I previously used to work after my school for financial help. I never had time enough time to study hard although despite of this I managed a good position in my class. Now, as I have some financial help, I have left my job. I am having ample time to study and I am feeling very happy because my performance has accelerated a lot and my lectures and professor are praising me. I very, very thankful to you and your organization...your organization is like an angel to me. — Alpha Pokharel, Nepal, Nursing Science

Thank you and the rest of the WMF family for the sponsorship! The money you sent will go a long way in helping me realize my dream and make a difference in my country through the medical knowledge I am attaining now with your assistance. May the good Lord continue to bless you abundantly. — Melisa Bhebe, Zimbabwe, Medicine
